About This Game

Bizarre lands! Fantasy! Chaos!

You start off with the main chapter centered in the bizarre alien land as described in the book Gods and Nemesis: Leviathan Seed. Additional chapters will be added allowing you to advance your character.

As the chapters are added for you to explore, Gods and Nemesis: of Ghosts from Dragons will unravel into a multiplayer open sandbox RPG. One thing you will notice up front is every asset is crafted from scratch. Future chapters will include a survival-based world that will invite you and your friends to adventure the main storyline, find side quests, unravel secrets, or create and play your own epic quests within a truly alien environment. Once you get used to the asymmetrical world with its fresh layout within the first chapters, future chapters will be released that include giving an open world experience. Are you an explorer or dungeon crawler? Are you a survivalist or crafter? Maybe you want to begin creating your own quests as a modder-- the future chapters will give you incredible options.

Features of this first chapter

- 1st chapter will be approximately one hour of average play
 - Engaging storyline
- Intro to the alien world with in-game tutorials
- Several Side quests and Easter Eggs

The 1st chapter will be scheduled on the release date for free. Additional chapters will be added over time based on overall support. Several chapters are already mapped out and will be available soon along with expanded content including the open world experiences. Although these systems work, the project will require additional developers to create a steady stream of content. In order to stand by my promise of releasing this game, I will release the 1st chapter which will have a great deal of content in itself. I believe that this will inspire the needed support for the planned Gods and Nemesis universe. Keep in mind that there is a unique burden of describing a truly alien world because there is little to relate with -- it must be played for someone to understand its potential and appeal and this is why the first chapters are deeply story driven.

We hope you enjoy update!. Twelve Days Of CoaguCo Christmas Coming Soon:

Usually for the holidays we like to do a giveaway for all the folks in the community, and those lurking the the peripheral waiting for keys. This year we decided to do something much different and, if it works out, something we'll do moving forward. This year starts the Twelve Days of CoaguCo Christmas!

How's It Work?

Inspired by the lovely game, Pony Island, each of day of CoaguCo Christmas, each of our games will release a new serial key for every game we have out. The keys will be embedded randomly somewhere in the games. The locations and keys should vary day by day, depending on how the RNG gods feel.

The process should be automated, for the most part, so new keys should release around the same time each day.

I Already Have This Game

If you get a key for a game you already have, we suggest giving it to a friend or donate it back to the community. Don't be a cunt and sell it.

We'll drop another announcement the day before CoaguCo Christmas begins!. 0.1.8 Released!:

Updates are going a bit slower than I expected.

0.1.8 addresses the following bugs:

- Asteroids inside asteroid missions now always explode on zero hp
- Homing missiles now recalculate their orientation 10 times a second instead of 4 times so they are more likely to hit now.

NARUTO TO BORUTO: SHINOBI STRIKER - Special Events (25/04 - 09/05):

Special events are now live until 9 May in Naruto to Boruto: Shinobi Striker!

Event 1: BORUTO Campaign

Find free gifts in your gift box: Ninjutsu and costume of Boruto, Sarada and Mitsuki.
(Ninjutsu: Vanishing Rasengan, Green Rain Ground Hold, and Snake Thrust)

Event 2: Special Boost Campaign

During the event period, three boosts will be active at the same time:

- Earn 50% more Training Points from missions and online play.
- Earn 50% more EXP from missions and online play.
- Scroll acquisition rate is increased by 50%.

The team. The Music of Magic Potion Destroyer #3:

Hi All

The music in Magic Potion Destroyer plays a key role in the story and progression of the game. The developer made sure that there was a different song for each stage in the game to convey certain elements.

For each track in the game, he will be sharing his comments and thoughts on the tracks.

Today we are moving on to the next section. How many of you have reached these stages?
